

THERAPEUTIC COMMUNITIES (TCS) AND RECOVERY MOVEMENTS – PRESENTATION & INTERACTIVE WORKSHOP

Dear Students, dear Colleagues,

We are pleased to invite you to a presentation and an interactive workshop. The event is hosted by the Department of Community and Social Studies (Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences).

The programme is part of the Community Development/Creative Industry study programme in the frameworks of the Indonesian International Vocational Student Mobility Award (IISMAVO), and an event in a series of jubilee programs to celebrate the 30th Anniversary of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences.

Presenter: Dr. Zsolt Nagy, PhD. (addiction consultant, practitioner and part-time lecturer at Semmelweis University, Budapest, Eötvös Loránd University, Budapest, and Károli Gáspár Reformed Church University, Budapest; and a former international student at the University of Amsterdam, Netherlands, and Sussex University, Brighton, UK)

We invite students and colleagues to participate and integrate their knowledge on the theme.

Registration is not required but seats might be limited as the event is part of the IISMAVO programme.

Date: 17th October, Monday, 4 p.m.

Venue: Pécs, 2. Rókus Street, Building “M”, Room 316

We are looking forward to our common work:

Marta B. Erdos, Jozsef Madacsy and Rebeka Javor, organizers
