

Doctoral Days

Educational Sciences and Perspectives

October 6 - 7, 2023, Osijek, Croatia

We are pleased to invite you to Doctoral Days 2023, which will take place at the Faculty of Education (University of Osijek) for the third consecutive year. This year we focus on the interdisciplinary nature of education, and doctoral students are invited to present their research on education-related topics from various scientific perspective, including the perspectives of social sciences and humanities. The aim is to establish constructive dialogue among doctoral students so that they would exchange theoretical knowledge and contemporary research on educational issues from the distinctive perspectives of different scientific disciplines.

There are two ways to get involved:

a) active participation - submitting abstract and presenting your research at the Faculty of Education (Osijek, Croatia); b) attendance – not submitting abstract, listening to other presentations via Zoom, without presenting.

Application	Deadlines	Forms
Active participation (on site)	May 15, 2023	ABSTRACT SUBMISSION
Attendance (online)	September 1, 2023	NO ABSTRACT SUBMISSION

All accepted abstracts will be published in Book of Abstracts in Croatian and English language. Each doctoral student can apply with only one abstract. If they prepare full papers, they can be submitted to the journals published by the Faculty of Education (Život i škola i Pannoniana).

There is no registration fee for doctoral students.

Presentations can be prepared in Croatian or English. We expect the majority of students to present in Croatian, and simultaneous interpretation will not be provide for non-speakers.
