

15

APRIL

PSZICHOLÓGIA I N T É Z E T

POWER, IDENTITY, AND ENVIRONMENT

SOCIAL PSYCHOLOGICAL PERSPECTIVES

9:00 - 9:50 ADRIAN WÓJCIK

Greenwashing independency: The connections between national identity and support for pro-environmental policies.

9:50 - 10:10 MICHAŁ GŁÓWCZEWSKI

We have suffered the most and we are proud of it: National narcissism and demanding war reparations from historical rivals in Poland and Greece

10:10 - 10:30 DOMINIKA JURGIEL

Disruption to end the destruction: The typology of radical collective pro-environmental behaviours

10:30 - 10:50 KACPER ZYSKOWSKI

A brief insight into how leaders see the world: Social power and abstract-concrete information processing

10:50-11:10 coffee break

11:10 - 11:30 SARA BIGAZZI

Identity matters: Theories, threatened belongings, and paths to participation

11:30 - 11:50 ANNA GOLNERITS

Supportive communities in crisis

11:50 - 12:10 BARBARA TÓTH

The different effects of perceived threats on system justification

12:10 - 12:30 SUBAS AMJAD

Social representations of researcher identity in the research process

PSYCHOLOGY
DEPARTMENT

ROOM 218