

Claims Conference ועידת התביעות
The Conference on Jewish Material Claims Against Germany

Call for Applications

The Claims Conference University Partnership in Holocaust Studies

For Universities in Eastern Europe and the Former Soviet Union to Teach Courses on the Holocaust

Applications open on July 23, 2026 | Deadline: November 20, 2026***
Maximum Award Amount: €30,000 | Term: the 2027–2028 academic year

The Claims Conference provides grants to universities to fund lecturers to teach Holocaust courses for one academic year, with the possibility of extending the grant for up to 4 years.

To be eligible for this application round, the university must:

- be based in Eastern, Central, or Southeastern Europe, or in any country of the former Soviet Union (except the Russian Federation),
- be a public (government-supported) and well-established university,
- have an established History or another Humanities-related department,
- be offering no more than 1 Holocaust course currently throughout the university,
- be able to accept funds from the Claims Conference to pay the chosen lecturer directly.

Requirements:

- To create a new full-time lecturer position. The lecturer would teach at least 3 Holocaust courses per semester at the university, including one Introduction to the Holocaust course.
- OR to combine the Holocaust teaching position with an already existing lecturer position at your university to teach a maximum of 3 Holocaust courses per semester.
- The lecturer must offer 4 public seminars, with the support of the university.
- The university may not add to the lecturer's responsibilities beyond those related to teaching the courses unless the university offers the lecturer a stipend.
- The lecturer and the syllabi must be approved by the Claims Conference.

For questions and to indicate your intent to apply, email Dr. Joanna Sliwa at Joanna.Sliwa@claimscon.org

For application and eligibility information, visit <http://www.claimscon.org/what-we-do/allocations/red/education/university-partnership/>

*Please allow an extra week in your application process planning, as all applications must go through the Fluxx portal. Registration may take a few extra days.

Please Circulate This Notice.

ועידת התביעות
Claims Conference
Conference on Jewish Material Claims
Against Germany

Funded by:

Federal Ministry of Finance

