

Rethinking the urban-rural relations/migrations in Europe

Scientific Symposium¹

(photo: Video ekipa na delu, Podzemelj; author: Nives Sulič, 1985, Etnoinfolab FF UL)

Venue: Department of Ethnology and Cultural Anthropology, Zavetiška 5, 1000 Ljubljana

May 26th, Ljubljana, Slovenia, 2022

Organiser: Department of Ethnology and Cultural Anthropology, Faculty of Arts, University of Ljubljana (UL), Department of European Ethnology - Cultural Anthropology, University of Pécs

Organising Committee: Alenka Bartulović (UL), Ana Svetel (UL), Anja Moric (UL, ZRC SAZU), Gábor Máté (University of Pécs)

¹ This symposium is part of the bilateral project entitled Anthropological study of rural-urban and urban-rural migrations in Central Europe: the case of Slovenia and Hungary (BI-HU /21-22-002), funded by ARRS and NRDI.

PROGRAMME

9.00-9.15: Welcome by Uršula Lipovec Čebtron, Head of the Department of Ethnology and Cultural Anthropology, Faculty of Arts, UL

9.15-9.30: Welcome by project leaders Alenka Bartulović and Gábor Máté

9.30-10.50: Session 1, Convened by Ana Svetel, University of Ljubljana

Gábor Máté (University of Pécs): Migrations and Transitions Mirrored in South-Hungarian Landscape Views (1945-2022)

Alenka Bartulović (University of Ljubljana): "When a city girl moves to the country:" Coping strategies of women farmers in Slovenia

Judit Farkas (University of Pécs): Back to the land movements - ecovillages in Hungary

Barbara Turk Niskač (independent researcher): Going Back to the Land in Slovenia: At the Intersection of Food, Land and Work

10.50-11.10: Coffee break

11.10-12.30: Session 2, Convened by Alenka Bartulović, University of Ljubljana

Bojan Baskar (University of Ljubljana): Some thoughts on South European agrotowns

Sarah Lunaček Brumen (University of Ljubljana): Back to the countryside in Niger? Urban schooled Tuaregs' herds and gardens

Réka Kurucz (University of Pécs): "Weekend peasants" of the shelters of vineyards

Ana Svetel (University of Ljubljana): Moving, Returning, Staying: (Im)mobilities of rural youth from the Solčavsko region

12.30-12.50: Coffee break

12.50-14.10: Session 3, Convened by Judit Farkas, University of Pécs

Duška Knežević Hočevar (ZRC SAZU, Sociomedical Institute): Farming stress through the ordinary ethics: progression, work and body

Uršula Lipovec Čebtron and Anja Brunec (University of Ljubljana): Urban and rural health during the Covid-19 pandemic in Slovenia

Anja Moric (University of Ljubljana, ZRC SAZU): Peasants, countryside and the language island ideology: case study of the Kočevska region

Pál Balogh (University of Pécs): Farmer - consumer relationships in Hungary. A case study of artisan cheesemakers

Final discussion: 14.10-14.30