

Qualifications

- MA in Hungarian and English, with honors, Janus Pannonius University, Pécs, Hungary, 1989
- PhD in Applied Linguistics, summa cum laude, University of Pécs, 2000
- Habilitation, 2012

Research domain

Mainly interested in corpus linguistics and writing pedagogy

Recent seminars and lectures taught (BA, MA, PhD levels)

- Reading and writing skills
- Listening and speaking skills
- Academic writing
- Classroom research project
- Oral presentation skills
- Professional writing
- Print and electronic media
- Research methods in English applied linguistics
- English applied linguistics

Current and former academic roles

- Team leader for several BA, MA and PhD programs, including for academic writing
- Associate professor at the Institute of English Studies, University of Pécs
- Chair of the Department of English Applied Linguistics, 2014 to 2017

Invited advisory, teaching, and consultation experience

- Ran workshops for teachers and taught various EFL classes at the Beregszász College, since 2010
- Taught an academic writing course to US, European and African students at the Summer school of the University of Graz, Austria, 2010
- Participated in the Makovecz program in Beregszász, Ukraine, 2021
- Supervised over 150 undergraduate theses and six PhD dissertations

Other international educational and research projects

- Bloomsburg University, Pennsylvania, Soros Foundation, 1987
- TESOL Summer Institute, Bratislava, 1991
- Center for Modern Languages, Graz, editorial workshop, 1996
- ELTSUP project, Utrecht, Netherlands, 1996
- CALL projects at King's College, Aberdeen, Scotland, Germany, and Szombathely, 1994-1997
- Corpus and writing research cooperation with faculty at Birmingham, Nitra, Beregszász, and Zagreb, 1995-2021
- Workshop for students at the Sharif University of Technology, Kish Island, Iran, 2022

Award

- Abay Neubauer Gyula Díj, 2001

Publishing and editorial experience

- Novelty, Modern Nyelvoktatás, TESL-EJ: editor
- System, Teaching English with Technology, Lublin Studies in Modern Languages and Literature: reviewer
- For additional publishing and editing experience, see mtmt

Former memberships in professional organizations

- IATEFL-H
- HUSSE
- MANYE