

African Studies in Pécs

10 Years of the Africa Research Centre

University of Pécs

15 November 2019

2:00 p.m.

South Sudan's Conflict of Ethnic and National Identity

by Dr. Chuol Kompuok (Director, African Governance and Development Institute, Civil Service University - Addis Ababa, Ethiopia)

The lecture will be held in English.

Venue: Hall B402 at the Faculty of Humanities
7624 Pécs, Ifjúság street 6.

5:00 p.m.

10 Years of the Africa Research Centre

Lecture by Dr. István Tarrósy (Director, Africa Research Centre - University of Pécs)

Venue: Conference Hall at the Civil Közösségek Háza (7621 Pécs, Szent István tér 17.)

5:45–7:00 p.m.

Lectures and Round-table Discussion about Present-day Ethiopia:

Will Abiy's Reform Remodel Ethiopia and Beyond?

Lecture by Dr. Chuol Kompuok (Director, African Governance and Development Institute, Ethiopian Civil Service University - Addis Ababa, Ethiopia)

Venue: Conference Hall at the Civil Közösségek Háza (7621 Pécs, Szent István tér 17.)

Ethiopia's Current Economic Slowdown: Can Privatization Help?

Lecture by Dr. Tsega Gebekristos Mezgebo (Assistant Professor, African African Governance and Development Institute, Ethiopian Civil Service University - Addis Ababa, Ethiopia)

English – Hungarian bilingual event.

Venue: Conference Hall at the Civil Közösségek Háza (7621 Pécs, Szent István tér 17.)

Mini Exhibition of Sub-Saharan African Masks

8:00 p.m.

Jam Tribe Live Band

The Jam Tribe is a band of 7 which is composed of PTE students from 6 countries - Nigeria, Ghana, South Africa, Sudan, Turkey and Hungary. The band is known for its spontaneity and draws its root from music across the world, performing all genres ranging from Soul, R&B, Funk, Jazz, Rock and others. Members have performed together, though not as a band, at several events here in Pécs and Budapest and often leave their audience craving for more. This Friday, the Jam tribe will have its first gig together as a band at Szabadikoto. The gig will see 3 hours full of scintillating and tuneful sound pleasing to the ear!

The event is free.

Venue: Szabadkikötő (7626 Pécs, Király utca 64.)

PÉCSI TUDOMÁNYEGYETEM
UNIVERSITY OF PÉCS

AFRIKA KUTATÓKÖZPONT
PÉCSI TUDOMÁNYEGYETEM

