

HUNGARY AND HUNGARIANS IN CENTRAL AND EAST EUROPEAN NARRATIVE SOURCES (10th – 17th CENTURIES)

21 March 2018

13:00 Official Opening of the Conference

- Prof. Dr. Tamás Bereczkei, Dean of Faculty of Humanities, University of Pécs
- Endre Sashalmi, Chairman of Department of Medieval and Early Modern History, University of Pécs

13:30 – 15:00, Session 1. Chair: Márta Font

Cosmas of Prague on the Hungarians

- Péter Báling (University of Pécs): Andrew, Béla, and Euphemia. Some Remarks on 11th-Century Dynastic Relations in the Light of Central European Narrative Sources
- Martin Wihoda (Masaryk University, Brno): Das Bild der ungarischen Nachbarn bei Cosmas von Prag

15:15 – 16:45, Session 2, Chair: Norbert Kersken

Questions of Structure and Typology in the Chronicles of 12th–13th -Century Rus'

- Jitka Komendová (Palacký University Olomouc): Continuatores Cosmae und die älteste altrussische Geschichtsschreibung: eine typologische Analyse
- Márta Font (University of Pécs): Die Struktur der Kiever Chronik. Versuch einer quantitativen Analyse
- Tamás Péderi (University of Pécs): The Impressions of Southwestern Rus' and its Neighbours in the Novgorod Chronicles

17:00, Book and Periodical Presentation

Chair: Endre Sashalmi

22 March 2018

9:30 – 11:00, Session 3, Chair: Pierre Gonneau

The Galician-Volhynian Chronicle on the Hungarians

- Adrian Jusupović (IH PAN, Warsaw): The Hungarian Faction in Galician Rus' in the 13th Century
- Dariusz Dąbrowski (Kazimierz Wielki University, Bydgoszcz): Involvement of the Romanovichi in the Political Events in Hungary during the Years 1260–1271

- Oleksiy Tolochko (National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine, Kiev): St Elisabeth and St Kunegund: Two Hungarian Saints in the Galician-Volhynian Chronicle

11:30 – 13:00, Session 4, Chair: Martin Wihoda

Hungarians in the Chronicles of Neighbouring Countries

- Gábor Barabás (University of Pécs): Prince Coloman's Life in Hungary. A Member of the Árpadian Dynasty and Western Narrative Sources
- Andrzej Marzec (Jagiellonian University, Cracow): Hungary and Hungarians in Jan z Czarnkowa Chronicle
- László Veszprémy (Pázmány Péter Catholic University, Budapest): The Hungarian Chronicle as a Source of Authority for 15th Century Historians Beyond Hungary (Thomas Ebendorfer, Veit Arnpeck, etc.)

14:00 – 15:00, Session 5, Chair: László Veszprémy

Hungary in Medieval German History-Writing

- Norbert Kersken (Herder Institute, Marburg): Ungarn in der Wahrnehmung der deutschen Historiographie
- Dániel Bagi (University of Pécs): Zur Entstehungszeit der beiden Ungarnchroniken von Heinrich von Mügeln

15:15 – 16:45, Session 6, Chair: Dániel Bagi

The Image of Hungary and Hungarians in the Late Middle Ages and the Early Modern Era

- Paul Srodecki (Christian-Albrecht University of Kiel): "Der gantzen Christenhait gemeyr und vorpaw." Stylized Allegories of Hungary in the Late Medieval and Early Modern Periods
- Pierre Gonneau (Paris-Sorbonne University): Hungary on the Pages of Ivan the Terrible's Illuminated Chronicle (1568–1576)
- Endre Sashalmi (University of Pécs): Chronicles, History - Writing and Ideology in Vasilii Tatishchev's Istoriia Rossiiskaia: "If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand" as a Leitmotiv in Interpreting Russian History

16:45, Closing Remarks: Dániel Bagi, Department of Medieval and Early Modern History, University of Pécs

21–22 March 2018

PAB Székház – Jurisics M. u. 44, Pécs

Conference Organizers: Pécs Branch of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences, the Working Committee on the History of Eastern and East Central Europe and the Excellence Centre of the Department of Medieval and Early Modern History – University of Pécs

MTA PÉCSI TERÜLETI BIZOTTSÁGA

