

SUSTAINABLE SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT – THE PROBLEM OF ADDICTIONS FROM A TRANSDISCIPLINARY APPROACH

Venue: 2 Rókus Street, Pécs, M/316

Language: English

Date: 13th November, 2015.

10.00 -10.30. Welcoming our guests from the Ural Federal University (Room 309, staff of the Institute of Social Relations)

10.30-12.30. Open lectures

10.30-10.50 Eduard Patrakov (Ural Federal University): Research Initiatives in Mental Health at the Ural Federal University

10.50-11.10 Gábor Kelemen (University of Pécs): Recent Challenges in Risk Management. New Psychoactive Substances and the Dark Side of the Internet

11.10-11.30 Gábor Szöllősi (University of Pécs): Healthy and Non-healthy Substances: Co-constructing Symbolic Means to Risk Management Ends

11.30-11.50 Marta B. Erdős (University of Pécs, co-authors: Mónika Márk, József Madácsy, Zsuzsanna Brettner): Innovative methods in the evaluation of recovery-oriented rehabilitation. Towards a possible model

11.50-12.10 Linda Szijjártó (University of Pécs): Major dimensions in measuring the effectiveness of therapeutic interventions in residential care among substance users. A pilot study.

12.10-12.30 Dániel Molnár: (University of Pécs): Local strategies to combat substance use

12.30-14.00 Work dinner (Paulus Restaurant)

14.00-15.00 A visit to the Russian Centre of the University of Pécs

15.00- Exploring future possibilities of collaboration. (Closed workshop staff of the Institute of Social Relations)

Registration for the open lectures: Ildikó Bóta (bota.ildiko@pte.hu) 10. a.m., 12th November, 2015.

Department of Social and Community Studies
Institute of Social Relations
Faculty of Humanities
University of Pécs

PTE BTK
Társadalmi Kapcsolatok Intézete
Közösségi és Szociális Tanulmányok Tanszéke